Mrs. Hall Seeks Country Home,
Inspects Several in This State

Special to the Herald Tribune

CARMEL, N. Y., Jan. 21.—Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, of New Brunswick, who was acquitted recently of complicity in the murder of her husband, the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, was in Brewster the first part of this week. She was accompanied by a real estate agent and is said to have looked at several country estates here with the intention of buying one for a home.

In Brewster to-day it was said that Mrs. Hall appeared to have been impressed by the J. G. Quinby home on the Brewster-Patterson state road, north of the Kishawana Golf Club, but considered the price too high.
